

ELDER ABUSE AND NEGLECT SQUAD

Protecting Virginia Seniors and Ensuring Quality Care

Created in 2008 as a part of the Medicaid Fraud Control Unit, Attorney General Mark Herring's Elder Abuse & Neglect Squad investigates and prosecutes cases of patient abuse and neglect wherever Medicaid dollars are being spent.

The Elder Abuse & Neglect Squad's goal is to make sure Virginia's Medicaid patients get the highest quality of care possible in their own home, a nursing home, or assisted living facility.

Attorney General
Mark R. Herring

Signs of Elder Abuse and Neglect:

- Burns, welts scratches, bruises, cuts
- Fractures, dislocations, sprains
- Restrained, tied to bed or chair
- Mistrust of others
- Unsanitary or unsafe housing
- Inappropriate or inadequate clothing
- Malnourished
- Lacks needed supervision
- Untreated medical conditions
- Lacks needed dentures, glasses, hearing aids or medication

Source: Virginia Department for Aging and Rehabilitative Services

To learn more about who we are and what we do visit us online at www.ag.virginia.gov or check us out on Facebook at www.facebook.com/VAMFCU

See Something? Say Something!

(800) 371-0824

MFCU_mail@oag.state.va.us

Office of the Attorney General
Attn: Elder Abuse & Neglect Squad
202 North Ninth Street
Richmond, Virginia 23219

